Supporting Men with Cancer

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Celebrating a Decade of Success: Idaho2Fly's Impactful Journey

The year 2023 marked a significant milestone for Idaho2Fly, as we celebrated our 10th anniversary. Over the years, we've been committed to educating and supporting men in Idaho who are battling cancer. When we started in 2013, nobody could have predicted that we would grow from one retreat per year to four.

Thanks to the generosity of our donors and dedicated volunteers, we were able to help 54 men at our retreats this year. The feedback we receive through emails, letters, social media posts, and direct conversations at events highlights the importance of our work and the life-changing impact it has on men and their families. Such heartwarming feedback is truly the driving factor behind our success.

However, our work in Idaho is far from over. The demand for our services continues to grow each year. We encourage you to share the story of our mission, "to support, educate and help men with cancer in Idaho rise above their disease," with your loved ones, physicians, and business associates. Volunteer your time and talents to support these men as we embark on our second decade of service.

Warm regards,
Keith Murphy

Programs

Expanding our Services: Programs and Events

As we strive to serve men with cancer, our list of events and programs has continued to grow. We're pleased to offer watercolor and photography classes to previous and new guests, allowing them to experience the beauty and creativity of these hobbies.

In April, our Fly Fishing 101 program will focus on our guests and facilitation staff during five sessions. We encourage guests to arrive early to secure the best seats for this popular program.

Our Buddy program and Coffee Connection are also expanding as more men reach out for support.
